WLAN

Campus WLAN at the Hochschule Hannover (HsH)

The following WIFI-access is available at the Hochschule Hannover:

eduroam

It will be accessible in any location within the network environment of your mobile device.

Eduroam enables registered users to access WLAN networks in their own as well as in other academic institutions. To that end, Eduroam is embedded into corresponding European projects, which aim to enable transparent, cross-border use of all research networks (see www.eduroam.org).

Eduroam offers secure 802.1X authentication and WPA2 encryption and is supported by the majority of mobile devices.

Information on Eduroam is available at:

<http://de.wikipedia.org/wiki/Eduroam>

Activating your WLAN authentication

Connecting to “eduroam” requires an one-time activation of your account at

<https://student.it.hs-hannover.de>

Select “DFNRoaming/eduroam” from the menu and change your password after you first login.

Additional Information at:

Please click <http://www.hs-hannover.de/it/services/stud/zugaenge-zum-hochschulnetzstud/zugaenge> for the following operating systems:

- ▶ MAC OSX
- ▶ Ubuntu Linux
- ▶ Windows 7

For mobile phones:

- ▶ Android Handy

At Other Higher Education Institutions

To log in via Eduroam, the user name is userid@hs-hannover.delogin.

Sending a file to print from your notebook

Please click under <https://webprint.hs-hannover.de> and log in with your university account.

Instructions are available at <https://support.it.hs-hannover.de/otrs/customer.pl?Action=CustomerFAQZoom;ItemID=227>.

After your successful login, you can collect your printing order at any of the Ricoh printers at Hochschule Hannover, which are equipped with chipcard readers.
